Bali is a beautiful island, thriving with culture and native art. We love our trip in The Island of the Gods in a way that's difficult to express in words.

Bali is a popular island in Indonesia. It's mostly known for its iconic rice paddies, jungles and forested volcanic mountains. Ubud is the arts and cultural heart of Bali – here you can visit art markets and workshops, Hindu temples or attend meditation/spiritual retreats. Seminyak is the “chic” counterpart of Ubud, where you can find boutique stores and restaurants. Kuta is a place for beginner surfing and, along with Sanur and Nusa Dua, is a popular resort town.

From Bali, you can also go to the nearby Nusa Lembongan and Ceningan and Nusa Penida islands.
